Dear Mr Vedavyas Acharya

Your letter of the 26th inst. to hand. I am sure their Excellencies would be very pleased if I would dine with them to-day at the Residency at 8/30 pm and requesting me to intimate my acceptance at my earliest convenience, which was apparently sent to the High Court yesterday has been forwarded to me here and received by me today at 10 am. I regret therefore that it has not been possible for me to accept the invitation. However I would request you to convey my thanks for the invitation to their Excellencies if it is possible to do so.

Yours truly
